FOOD SAVING
TO HINGE ON
CROP REPORTGOVERNMENT HOPES
FOR RISE IN CORN
YIELD ESTIMATEBy OVID A. MARTIN and STERLING F. GREEN

Washington, Oct. 10 (AP)—The government looked anxiously to a new crop forecast today for a possible boost in the corn yield estimate which would ease the world grain shortage.

Despite signs of bettered mid-west crop conditions, President Truman clearly was not banking on any great gain. Public observance of meatless and eggless days is of "vital importance" in easing Europe's hunger, he told his weekly news conference.

Chairman Charles Luckman of Citizens' Food Committee, waiting for the verdict from distillers and brewers on his drastic conservation proposals for their industries, said nationwide cooperation is essential to "the saving of peace."

Rationing Recommended

The National Planning association declared that rationing of food to Americans is the only way to continue huge shipments to Europe without "another price explosion in the farm-food sector."

The association suggested to the House Agriculture Committee that bread consumption be slashed one-third between now and the next wheat harvest.

The new crop report, closely guarded within the agriculture department and awaited with unusual eagerness in the grain-consumption capital, was due for release at 3 p. m. E. S. T.

It contains the department's estimate of production of all major crops as of October 1.

A hoist of 100,000,000 bushels or 2.6 in the corn estimate, over the 40,913,000 forecast a month earlier, would go a long way toward making up the foreign deficit while maintaining a high level of livestock production in this country.

Corn was plagued by cool, wet weather at planting time and by lack of rain in mid-summer. The production outlook on Sept. 1 indicated the crop might be the

Manager Of Store
Killed In Daylight
Holdup At Detroit

Detroit, Oct. 10 (AP)—Police hunted today for a well-dressed man and woman reported to have been "hanging around" in the grocery where Allie Eidy, 56-year-old store manager, was shot to death yesterday.

Officers expressed belief that Eidy, found shot through the head, was a victim of a daylight hold-up. About $250 was missing from the cash register, they reported.

The victim was found by four-year-old Allene Rambin, who had been in the store with her mother a short time before the shooting and was sent back for a loaf of bread.

Police said Mrs. Clara Rambin led them about the couple in the store.

Eidy died five hours after the shooting.

Balkan Watchdogs
Created As Soviets
Threaten Boycotts

BY LARRY HAUCK

Lake Success, Oct. 10 (AP)—Despite a Russian boycott threat, the United Nations went ahead today with creation of a "watchdog" commission in the turbulent Balkans.

The blunt Soviet announcement of non-cooperation, delivered to the assembly's 57-nation political committee by Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky in angry tones yesterday, was followed quickly by similar statements from Poland, Yugoslavia, the Soviet Ukraine, White Russia and Czechoslovakia.

Vishinsky's statement came in the midst of another violent attack on the United States-sponsored Balkans commission and left delegates momentarily stunned. However, Chairman Joseph Bech of Luxembourg calmly called for the debate on commission membership to continue. Premier Paul-Henri Spaak of Belgium and U. S. Delegate Herschel V. Johnson then remarked tartly that the Soviet decision was to be regretted but there was no cause to turn back.

Moscow's move means that the Soviet bloc of countries will not take part in the election to the commission nor in its work. Further, most observers interpreted the step to mean that any group of the Balkans by the U. N. would never get a foot on the soil of Albania, Yugoslavia or Bulgaria, the three countries accused in a security council commission's report of fomenting unrest on Greece's northern borders.

"The special committee with the policies put before it is directly contradictory to the principles of the charter," Vishinsky shouted in his courtroom-manner. "The Soviet delegation, speaking for the Soviet government, declares it will not take part in this committee and cannot take part in the election of this committee."

Vishinsky's speech was a sequel to Wednesday's 34 to 6 committee decision authorizing the Balkans commission. Still remaining to be decided were the makeup of the body and whether the authorizing resolution would condemn by name Yugoslavia, Bulgaria and Albania.

CARIBBEAN SEA
STORM BREWINGHurricane Hunters Ready
To Check Disturbance
Southeast Of Miami

Miami, Fla., Oct. 10 (AP)—A tropical disturbance was centered about 600 miles from Miami in the northeastern Caribbean Sea today and the weather bureau was keeping a careful watch for developments.

A ship standing off to the side reported winds of 30 miles an hour this morning with heavy seas and rain.

Grady Norton, chief federal storm forecaster, said that a hurricane hunting plane was scheduled to take off from Jamaica to probe the storm and reports should be available later in the day.

He placed the storm 100 miles northeast of Swan Island, breeding ground for hurricanes during October.

Hurricane busting planes poised at Schenectady, N. Y., were kept informed of the progress of the disturbance for their evaluation. The Navy announced yesterday that they were now ready to take off on a moment's notice to drop dry ice and other chemicals into probably the next hurricane that developed in an attempt to dissipate it.

Couples In Nanking

Nanking, Oct. 10 (AP)—This was bargain day for Chinese planning marriage, and 255 couples took advantage of it.

The average wedding in inflation-ridden China these days costs about 30,000,000 Chinese dollars ($375 U. S.). But couples participating in the government-sponsored mass marriage ceremony at Nanking today—birthdate of the Chinese Republic—only had to pay 100,000 Chinese dollars—about $1.25 U. S.

Feed America First,
Gov. Dewey Advises

BY HARRY O'DONNELL

Ithaca, N. Y., Oct. 10 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey warned the nation today against "thoughtless or badly planned generosity" in feeding Europe at the expense of American health.

The undeclared contender for the 1948 Republican presidential nomination declared that "pleasant or vague generalities will not do the job" of solving the world food crisis.

Dewey, in his National Radio Broadcast, did not refer directly to President Truman's program for voluntary public food rationing.

The governor spoke of "a prior and a binding obligation to see that no American is poorly fed" and added:

"Millions of our families have already been scrimping on food to the limit.

"The high cost of living has forced some of them to change their living habits to a point which actually threatens their health and vitality."

Dewey participated in the dedication of a new unit in Cornell university's school of nutrition.

Rep. Clifford R. Hope (R-Kans.) told the gathering there had been "too much emotion and too little thinking" about high food prices.

"There is nothing unusual in the behavior of farm and food prices during and since the war," he asserted.

Dewey implied that the rest of the nation will might follow New York's lead in promoting "better use of what we have" rather than emphasizing lower consumption.

"He created a state food commission last week to help the public 'adjust' to conservation and high prices."

The body, found face up on the banks of Johnson's creek among the tall, rough weeds of an outlying area of the city, was undoubtedly that of the Kennedy boy, Detective Lieutenant Charles Buckholdt said.

He reported the articles of clothing matched those that Gene wore the day he set out to caddy on a Detroit golf course late in August. The boy's father, James J. Kennedy, viewed the body, Buckholdt added, but withheld a positive identification until the family dentist had a chance to examine the teeth.

Harold R. Smith, 40, whose English setter led him to the body, reported the weeds and grass in the area had been trampled as if the boy had been dragged to the spot.

No weapon was found in the vicinity.

Kennedy had expressed fears that his son had met with foul play and posted rewards for the boy's return. Gene was last seen Aug. 23 at a road junction about 12 miles from the place where the body was found.

Gene earned $6 the last day he caddied at the Western Golf Club, officials there reported. There were three dollar bills in the pocket of the denim trousers on the body.

Atom-Bombed Trees
Of Hiroshima Grow
Two Years In One

Tokyo, Oct. 10 (AP)—All trees which lived through the atomic bombing of Hiroshima showed two years growth in 12 months, Bunriki university scientists reported to Kyodo news agency today.

The agency said, however, that scientists working at Hiroshima could find no instances of increased crop production, such as other scientists reported recently from atom-bombed Nagasaki. On the contrary, they said, plants in general were smaller.

Trees which were still alive after the blast, the scientists said, grew two rings during the first year. Most plum trees, cherry, camphor and eucalyptus survived, but most pine and cryptomeria were killed.

Regular Army And
Air Force To Get
5900 More Officers

Washington, Oct. 10 (AP)—President Truman appointed approximately 5,900 more officers today to the regular army and regular air force.

The appointments of National Guard, officer reserve corps and Army of the United States to regular commissions is of a recess nature and will require confirmation when the Senate reconvenes.

The new list brings to about 28,000 the number of officers transferred to the regular army or air force since the end of the war. Including officers already in the regular establishment, the total for the Army and Air Force with the new increment will be about 40,000.

Approximately 10,000 more will be needed to bring the two services up to an authorized total strength of approximately 50,000.

Detroit, Oct. 10 (AP)—A six weeks' search for 13-year-old Gene Paul Kennedy was ended today after discovery of a body police identified as that of the youngster who disappeared after a day of caddy-ing.

The body, found face up on the banks of Johnson's creek among the tall, rough weeds of an outlying area of the city, was undoubtedly that of the Kennedy boy, Detective Lieutenant Charles Buckholdt said.

DOWN BY AFLTOP LEADERS STRIP
VICE PRESIDENTS OF THEIR JOBS

By HAROLD W. WARD

San Francisco, Oct. 10 (AP)—Top AFL leaders slapped down a defiant John L. Lewis today by voting to strip him—and 12 other vice presidents—of the "office" in the Federation by which he was able to bar the door of the National Labor Relations Board to 1,500 tiny local unions.

Though not a "Red" sympathizer himself, Lewis refused to sign the affidavit required by the Taft-Hartley Act disavowing Communism. Unions whose officers don't sign, cannot use the National Labor Relations Board.

The little local unions, with 300,000 members used the NLRB's protective facilities most among the AFL's big family of unions. Their national "officers" are the council members.

The 15-man council, over the opposition of Lewis, voted to do away with the offices of vice-presidents, leaving only President William Green and Secretary-treasurer George Meany as "officers" of the federation.

Taken Fight Expected

Lewis and his 12 vice-presidential colleagues would become mere council members, retaining their numerical order of seniority on that policy-making body.

One council member predicted the convention would adopt the proposal by a seven-eighths majority, but delegates whispered they expected the militant Lewis to put up at least a token fight on the convention floor. A constitutional amendment, requiring a two-thirds vote, is necessary to put the change in effect.

Few now believe that Lewis would go so far to "take a walk" from the AFL over it. He brought his 600,000 miners back to the Federation in January, 1946, a decade after he had led them out to help form the CIO. Later he

Lansing Bribe Case
Awaits Decision On
Hemans' Testimony

Lansing, Oct. 10 (AP)—The long dormant Grand Jury case against 19 former legislators and bankers charged with giving and taking bribes came to life momentarily before its fifth adjournment in a year yesterday.

Detroit Circuit Judge Chester P. O'Neil sitting as magistrate, set over the examination to Nov. 13, declaring he was "duty bound" to await a State Supreme Court decision on his ruling that Charles F. Hemans, one-time state star witness, could not be compelled to testify.

The defendants, indicted July 20, 1947, are charged with conspiracy to corrupt the 1941 legislature to defeat a bill curtailing branch banking.

The day-long adjournment, the day-long session was uneventful by introduction of a surprise prosecution affidavit, demands of the defense that special Prosecutor Richard P. Foster take the stand for cross-examination, Foster's refusal, a defense subpoena naming Foster, Foster's refusal to accept it unless directed by the court, a defense motion to hold Foster in contempt, and Foster's finally being directed to take the stand.

Brothers' Quarrel
In Muskegon Home
Has Death Finale

Muskegon, Mich., Oct. 10 (AP)—A 25-year-old man shot and critically wounded his brother during an argument last night, sheriff's deputies reported, and then took his own life.

The dead man was identified by Deputies Henry Hoffman, Lawrence Cole and Robert Thomas as Eugene Rhamor, in critical condition in Hackley hospital was Eugene Rhamor, 26, also an ex-soldier.

The officers said Eugene, who had quarreled frequently in recent weeks with his brother, wounded Ulysses in the abdomen and then shot himself through the head.

Curtis Rhamor, father of the two men, told police Eugene had won 16 battle stars while serving in the South Pacific. A third brother, Charles, was lost in action on a submarine during the war.

Older Rhamor said he was a general counsel, took over as acting chairman in February, 1946, and has been chairman since last Dec. 3.

Denny declined to comment on reports that he will become associated with a radio chain.

He joined the FCC in 1942 as general counsel, took over as acting chairman in February, 1946, and has been chairman since last Dec. 3.

Despair Rules Over
War-Ridden China
On 36th Anniversary

Shanghai, Oct. 10 (AP)—China celebrated her 36th anniversary as a republic today in an atmosphere described by U. S. Ambassador J. Leighton Stuart as "a widely prevalent mood of cynical despair."

There were no celebrations, parades or demonstrations. The government was putting into force its austerity program to husband the nation's strength for the civil war with the Communists.

Stuart wrote in a special supplement of Shanghai's English language newspaper, China Press, that "The distressing realities of the national outlook today seem to be so glaringly a contradiction of the high hopes and splendid ideals symbolized by this event."

Chicago, Oct. 10 (AP)—Ten persons, including six children and four women, were killed and more than a dozen others were injured early today in a fire which swept through a crowded four-story apartment building on the city's near northwest side.

All of the dead and injured in the blaze, which police and fire officials said appeared to have been of incendiary origin, were Negroes. Fourteen were hospitalized.

KIDNAP-ROBBERY
CLUES CHECKED

No Trace Found Of Two
Missing Men; Detroit
Bandit Questioned

Detroit, Oct. 10 (AP)—State police investigating the abrupt disappearance of two service station attendants checked today on the possibility of a link between them and a Detroit bandit shot down yesterday in Findlay, O., after holding a minister as hostage.

Commissioner Donald S. Leonard sent two state troopers to the Ohio city to question Leonard Johnson, 27, in connection with robberies early Wednesday morning of gasoline stations 45 miles apart on Telegraph Road in Michigan.

Attendants at the two stations, 21-year-old James R. Hall of Detroit and Donald Duseau, 29, of Temperance, vanished after the robberies, and efforts to locate them have thus far been fruitless. Because cars of both men were left at the stations, state police theorized the pair might have been kidnapped after the holdups.

The fact that a black sedan was involved in the attendants' disappearance and the Johnson case led Leonard to investigate the chance that there might be a connection between the two incidents.

A black car was noted near the Detroit gasoline station, police reported, a short time before the robbery there, and Johnson and Lindell Brown, were arrested in the Ohio city on auto theft suspicion while driving a 1937 black sedan reported to have been stolen in Detroit.

American Colony
Survives Typhoon
Havoc on Two Jima

Two Jima, Oct. 10 (AP)—Wind-weary American servicemen and their dependents emerged from storm shelters early this morning after 36 hours concealment from a vicious typhoon which howled across this battlefield island at speeds reaching 170 miles an hour.

Correspondents flying home from Japan found no casualties or injuries among the servicemen and 24 dependent families stationed here.

But damage to installations was extensive. The winds smashed like giant hands on scores of buildings, ripped out the island's inner communications system and snatched the flagpole off Mt. Suribachi, linked in history with the U. S. Marines who captured this one-time Japanese bastion.

Maj. Sverdrup W. Nielsen, the island's engineering officer, said ruefully that the storm's havoc "sets us back at least six months," but the island commander, Col. Raleigh Macklin, was thankful that the loss was not greater.

Romance Crashes
As Louise Mails
Ring Back To Bud

Los Angeles, Oct. 10 (AP)—The final blow to the romance of Louise Overell and George (Bud) Gollum was apparently struck yesterday as the heiress mailed her engagement ring back to her former lover and co-defendant.

The 19-year-old heiress pecked the ring with one of Gollum's Navy dog tags and a small plastic cross and chain, and addressed it to her 21-year-old ex-fiance, at the home of his mother.

Gollum wasn't expected to get it immediately, however. He was camping in the mountains, trying to forget the harrowing 19-week trial after which he and Louise were acquitted of charges of murdering her parents.

ARMIES MASS
FOR DEFENSE
OF HOLY LANDRING OF STEEL TO COMBAT SPREAD OF ZIONISM

By CARTER L. DAVIDSON

Beirut, Lebanon, Oct. 10 (AP)—The armies of five Arab nations started moving today, translating into action last night's Arab league resolutions calling on the Arab world to defend Palestine from Zionism with men and money.

War office spokesmen in Lebanon and Syria said troops of those two countries bordering on Palestine had begun rolling at midnight and were "maneuvering" near the frontier.

Troops of King Abdullah's Arab legion of Trans-Jordan reportedly the largest and best-equipped military force in the oil-rich middle east, started massing along the river Jordan in half a dozen hastily spotted camps.

Ready For Invasion

The Lebanon press said mechanized patrols of this force were ranging along the whole length of Palestine's eastern boundary in readiness for what the papers called invasion of eastern Palestine.

To the south, reliable sources in Beirut said, Egyptian forces were preparing to move into the Sinai desert, and Saudi Arabian Calvary was reported crossing into Egyptian territory at the invitation of the Egyptian government to participate in cordoning off the Holy Land with a ring of steel.

Seven Saudi Arabian airplanes were reported unofficially to have landed at Egyptian airbases.

Emir Magid Arslan, Lebanon's War Minister, said "of course we cannot disclose the movements of our forces," but sources close to the War Ministry estimated a mobile force of 2,000 Lebanese soldiers reached the Palestine frontier before dawn today.

(At Lake Success, N. Y., spokesmen for Britain and for the Jewish agency for Palestine minimized the importance of the Arab League action. The Jewish agency spokesman called it obviously a "propaganda threat" timed to coincide with United Nations deliberations on the problem of the Holy Land's future.)

(British sources said the Arab countries would not be able to muster any major military force unless given considerable time. Hector McNeil, the British Minister of State, declared "I can't believe that these responsible governments are permitting such irresponsible behavior.")

PRESS HONORED BY KIWANIS

Nat'l Newspaper Week
Observed At Joint Meeting Here

Kiwanians of Iron Mountain and Escanaba joined in the observance of National Newspaper Week at the Sherman hotel Thursday night and heard a warning by Dr. John Nickell of Oconomowoc, Wis., that the spread of Communism throughout the world constitute a dire threat to the freedom of the press and other individual liberties free citizens now enjoy.

Dr. Nickell was introduced by George Best of Iron Mountain, lieutenant-governor of Kiwanis in the Upper Peninsula district, who arranged for the joint meeting.

William Warrington, president of the Escanaba Kiwanis club, introduced members of the Escanaba Daily Press staff and paid tribute to John P. Norton, publisher of the Press, for his many years of public service to Escanaba and the Upper Peninsula. Romeo Rocheleau, president of the Iron Mountain club, introduced the representatives of the Iron Mountain News and the Norway Weekly Current. Brief talks were also given by Mr. Norton, editor of the Press, Lawrence Tucker, editor of the Iron Mountain News, and L. D. Randall, publisher of the Current.

Tribute was also paid at the meeting to John Bartella of Escanaba and Joseph Payant of Iron Mountain, who have been members of Kiwanis 25 years.

After reviewing the history of the American constitution which guarantees freedom of the press and religion and other civil rights, Dr. Nickell expressed the hope that the American press would remain free from government censorship. He pointed to France, now "overrun by Communists," as an example of a nation that has been weakened by the defilement of its press.

"Communism is a totalitarian form of government controlled by one man, Stalin," said Dr. Nickell. "Communism has as its root evil, and never can we bring good from anything that has evil and deceit as its underlying factors."

The speaker asserted that the Communists' creed calls for all-out political and economic war against the democratic nations. He cited Hungary, Albania and Yugoslavia as countries where the Communists have infiltrated and finally set up puppet governments directed from Moscow. The Communists are active in America, the speaker said, operating behind such front organizations as the American Youth for Democracy, National Negro Congress and International Workers Order.

Medical Treatment Provided For Vets With Ear Defects

World War II veterans who suffered hearing impairments in service are eligible for a special program of medical rehabilitation which Veterans Administration has established to help them overcome their handicap.

VA officials in Escanaba said eligible veterans may take advantage of this program whether they require medical attention to improve their hearing or whether they need rehabilitation to overcome the handicap of a permanent hearing impairment.

The complete rehabilitation course includes a series of hearing and speech tests, the selection and fitting of a hearing aid if indicated, auditory training, lip reading instruction and speech correction if necessary.

Raise Fee Charges For County Clerks

Under acts of the 1947 legislature that become effective Saturday, Oct. 11, certain changes in matters pertaining to the office of the county clerk, including an increase in fees charged, have been announced by the office of the auditor general. Class Officers Elected At EHS

Escanaba senior high school classes elected officers for the year at general meetings held Thursday afternoon.

They are:

The elections followed a primary held Tuesday to select candidates for office.

Hits Light Pole; Gets Summons for Reckless Driving

Arthur Koolman, 205 North 19th street, was given a summons for reckless driving Thursday evening after he lost control of a dairy truck that he was driving and the vehicle wrecked a light pole at the intersection of 14th street and First avenue south. The accident occurred at seven p. m.

Koolman was returning the truck to a dairy company after greasing it at a service station where Koolman is employed. Police said that Koolman was unfamiliar with the operation of the truck, which is driven by the operator in a standing position, and that he stepped on the accelerator instead of the brake pedal, causing him to lose control of the machine.

IRON MT. BEGINS AIRPORT WORK

New Blacktopped Strip
Will Be 3,800
Feet Long

Iron Mountain.—Directed by Leonard Della-Moretta, of the Alpine Construction company, and James McDonald, of Watersmeet, state project-engineer, extension of the Ford Airport east-west runway, begun Monday, is proceeding satisfactorily. Clearing, grubbing (elimination of stumps) and grading are underway. Joseph Fontana, co-owner with his brother, Mario, of the Fontana School of Aeronautics, announced.

The project, according to McDonald, will be completed in 90 days, except for blacktopping, which will be done next spring. The Alpine Construction company, of St. Ignace, was awarded the airport job on its bid of $66,285.75.

The new air strip will be 75 feet wide and 3,800 feet long, and paved with blacktop, giving the airport an all-weather landing field which will accommodate ships of all types.

Swimmers have crossed the English channel 25 times, ten women and 14 men having made the crossing, one man twice.

4 U. P. Men Among 1st Of World War II Dead Aboard Ship Due Today

The bodies of four Upper Peninsula young men who lost their lives serving in the Pacific theater are aboard the United States Army transport ship, Honda Knot, which is scheduled to dock in San Francisco this afternoon, the first of several ships to arrive from Europe and the Pacific area in the near future carrying a total of approximately 216,000 deceased servicemen to home burial places.

The four to be shipped to the Upper Peninsula via Chicago, a distributing point for the Midwest in the vast repatriation and re-burial plan are Pvt. Roger W. Godin, United States Marine corps, whose next of kin is Aquila J. Godin, 212 Ludington avenue, Menominee; Pharmacist's Mate Robert R. Larson, U. S. Navy, to Nels E. Larson, 200 Brown street, Norway; S/Sgt. Urho V. Harman, U. S. Army Air Corps, to John Harman, Route 2, Crystal Falls, and Pfc. Benjamin G. Bauman, U. S. Marine corps, to George Bauman, 123 West Hughtitt street, Iron Mountain.

Forty-six Michigan veterans are aboard the first ship it was disclosed this morning by the Associated Press. The bodies of more

New Laws Cited By Register Of Deeds

There are several new laws affecting the filing of instruments in registers of deeds offices which become effective Saturday Oct. 11, and to these laws J. Theodore Ohlen, Delta county clerk and register of deeds is directing the attention of the public.

Public Act, No. 20, provides that no deed or other instrument designed to convey an interest in land to survivors under a joint deed, shall be recorded unless accompanied by a certified copy of the death certificate, or other proof of death.

Public Act, No. 64 amends the chattel mortgage law to entitle the office of the register of deeds to receive the following fees for services:

"For filing each instrument intended to operate as a chattel mortgage, or copy thereof, and for filing each assignment, unless such assignment be attached to, or endorsed upon such mortgage or copy thereof at the time of filing, each renewal affidavit and partial release, 50 cents, and for certified copies of such instruments, copies or affidavits, the same fees as are allowed by law for copies of records kept by registers of deeds. The register of deeds shall receive no fee for filing a complete discharge or any instrument now or hereafter filed under this act."

(Note: In Delta county fees received in the register of deeds office are turned into the county general fund.)

Lunch was served by Mrs. Bailey's daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Ed Roberts and Ruth Hebert. Mrs. Bailey received many lovely gifts.

than 700 U. P. servicemen will be returned from overseas military cemeteries to their respective communities for burial.

Of this number, 90 will be returned to Delta county. Arrangements for their return here for military services if desired by the next of kin and for handling all details were made at a recent meeting here conducted by Major L. S. Adamski, Michigan repatriation program representative.

The following organizations were represented at the Delta county meeting: Disabled American Veterans, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, several American Legion posts in the county. The Office of Veterans' Affairs in Escanaba is handling the local program.

A local committee to take charge of the program will be appointed soon by Elmer Olson, chairman of the executive committee of the newly-organized veterans' service.

First shipments of World War II dead will arrive in San Francisco and New York City today and Oct. 26, respectively.

Appropriate ceremonies will be held in those two cities in connection with the arrival of these shipments. They will be tributes of honor to all World War II deceased.

All military installations in the United States will pay tribute on these two days by displaying the U. S. flag at half-mast today and on Oct. 26.

Also, all installations equipped with the necessary personnel and material will fire a 21-gun salute at one-minute intervals commencing at noon on both days.

Deane Shipman Is Hospitalized By Practice Injury

Deane Shipman, 16, member of the Escanaba high school third team, who suffered injuries to his right leg in football practice on September 30, was removed from his home to St. Francis hospital Thursday, for treatment for inward hemorrhages which developed. His condition today was reported as fairly good. Deane is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Shipman, 404 South 4th street.

FOUNDRY HAS MANY ORDERS

Dreger Says Bay Plant Will Expand Its Operations

Bay Foundry company is getting more business than it can handle just now and consequently operations at the plant will be steadily expanded in the future, Herbert Dreger, general manager said today.

About thirty men are employed, with a monthly payroll ranging from $5,500 to $6,000. On an incentive pay basis, experienced molders are now earning from $1.25 to $1.50 per hour, while the afternoon pouring and shakeout crew makes from $1 to $1.40.

Mr. Dreger said that the foundry, which commenced operations on June 16, is now casting from seven to eight tons daily. The company has a large backlog of orders for the supplying of castings to the automotive, road equipment and farm machinery industries. "We have more business than we know what to do with," said Dreger.

A new field being served by the local foundry is the woodworking machinery industry. The Durometal Products company of Chicago has placed a large order for castings for lathes, sawtables, grinder stands, drill presses and other equipment used in the so-called basement workshops. Woodshop hobbyists of late years have been going in for the making of larger and more useful articles and consequently are using new and bigger woodworking equipment, Mr. Dreger explained.

Stop When School Bus Stops, Auto Drivers Warned

Painted on the back of every school bus in Michigan are the words: Stop when school bus stops. State Law.

Sheriff William E. Miron today emphasized that the law means just what it says. The law requires that any motorist approaching a school bus that has stopped to take on or discharge pupils must come to a full stop and remain stopped while the "stop" arm on the left front of the bus is extended. He may proceed when the driver again lowers the arm, indicating that the children have all crossed the highway or are safely in the bus.

The sheriff said that when the school bus drivers apply for their chauffeurs license they are advised to report to the sheriff's office the license numbers of motorists who fail to observe the law. Every complaint made by the school bus drivers will be investigated, the sheriff said.

Many motorists are believed to be passing the stopped school buses because they are not yet familiar with the law requiring them to stop when the school buses stop.

SCHOOL LUNCH PROGRAM SET

14 Districts In County Represented Here In Meeting Thursday

Eleven Delta county school districts that maintained school lunch programs for their pupils last year, and three that are interested in establishing the program this year, were represented Thursday night at a meeting conducted by Hagle Quarnstrom, county school superintendent, in the Webster Annex.

Purpose of the meeting was to explain the Michigan plan for administration of the federal school lunch program, and to hand out agreement and monthly report forms to the representatives of the participating school districts.

Districts that sponsored school lunch programs last year were Baldwin, Bark River-Harris, Bay de Noc, Ensign, Cornell, Maple Ridge, Masonville, Nahma, Wells, Brampton and Ford River. Last year Maple Ridge had only a lunch program for its kindergarten and it will be extended. In Ford River district there was a Ford River program only at the Ford River Mills school and this the PTA is interested in extending it to the Kasten school.

Most of the schools in the above group already have their lunch programs in operation and they will be reimbursed although they have not yet signed agreements. New schools expressing interest in the program were those in Escanaba township, where the PTA is expected to sponsor the lunches in all four schools; and the school districts of Escanaba and Gladstone. All of the new schools must wait for approval of their contracts before they will be allotted federal funds.

Under the Michigan plan the sponsoring districts will be reimbursed at the rate of 7 cents for each type A meal served. This amount may be raised later in the year, depending on the number of participating schools. The students pay up to 10 cents each for their meals, and pay the salary of a cook who prepares the meals. The federal contribution pays only a part of the total cost.

The participating school districts have also signed agreements with the department of agriculture to receive surplus commodities from the government which will be used in the school lunches.

Seaway Optimism

IT IS ENCOURAGING for supporters of the St. Lawrence seaway to note the optimism expressed by Senator Aiken, of Vermont, regarding the prospects for authorization of the seaway project when Congress reconvenes in January.

Senator Aiken, long an advocate of the project, has reported that the Senate will put the seaway project in an important place on its agenda and that the Senate will approve the legislation early in the session. It should be noted that the senator did not say, "maybe" or "perhaps," but that he predicted, without qualification, that the seaway plan finally will get the support of the Senate by a margin of more than the two-thirds necessary to ratify a seaway treaty with Canada.

The Vermont senator has pointed out that the seaway treaty provides for more than a water connection between the Atlantic Ocean and the Great Lakes. It also makes possible a great amount of hydroelectric power for both Canada and the United States and the need for more electric power is obvious to anyone who makes even a cursory study of industrial and residential power requirements in the area that the St. Lawrence power project would serve.

Selfish interests have been able to block the seaway project year after year in the past, but it is significant that the project proposal continued to gain new adherents each time, until now it seems that congressional approval is imminent.

The seaway legislation has already been approved by the Senate foreign relations committee, action taken by the committee before adjournment of the last session. The proposal now can go directly to the Senate floor when Congress reconvenes in January.

Russia, The Land Of The Free!

THE new international Communist organization is not wasting any time to fulfill the function for which it was developed, that of waging a virulent campaign of propaganda against the United States.

Communist leaders in Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia and other countries that were represented at the reorganization of the Communist in one day's trade called the United States imperialistic, monopolistic, anti-democratic and aggressive. Strangely enough, these are the same charges of which the Russian Communists have been accused so frequently by the capitalist countries, and with good reason.

The Czech minister of industry, Bohumil Lauerman, gets the trophy for the most amusing statement of all. He says, "We are at the side of the freedom loving countries headed by the Soviet Union."

Russia, the freedom loving country! Russia, with its concentration camps and iron curtain. Russia, which holds under subjugation the countries of Poland, Romania, Bulgaria, Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, Hungary, Albania and Yugoslavia and with the sickle and Communism poised to strike at Czechoslovakia, Greece, Turkey and Italy!

The Communists call the United States anti-democratic, but that is because the Communist conception of democracy is different from ours. In Russia, democracy means that you get a chance to vote for Communist leadership, but if you should protest Communist rule, you're inviting the firing squad or the hangman's noose. Yes, we are opposed to that kind of democracy.

The new communist propaganda against the United States will be as bitter and virulent as it will be untrue. In the words of that popular expression, "You ain't seen nothin' yet."

A Problem In Eggs

THE eggless Thursday phase of the voluntary food conservation program is designed to discourage farmers from feeding grain to their chickens to produce more eggs, thereby saving their grain for shipment abroad, but there is growing skepticism that eggless Thursday can work out that way in actual practice.

The reason is the government's price support law which requires Uncle Sam to maintain a floor on egg prices depending upon the farmers' cost of living. At present the support price of eggs to the farmer is 53c a dozen. This also happens to be the national average price of eggs received by the farmer on Sept. 15.

If fewer eggs are consumed by the American people, the normal result would be a drop in price. But Uncle Sam can't let the price drop and he will have to step in and buy eggs that he doesn't need to keep the price at the support level. Incidentally, the government already possesses 134,000,000 dozens of eggs, dried and frozen.

which were purchased in the first seven months of this year.

Under this system, there is no economic reason for farmers to reduce egg production because he can sell at a profit all the eggs his hens can produce, if not to the general public then to Uncle Sam. The government is asking the farmer to reduce his egg production by sending his laying hens to market as a patriotic gesture, but it is doubtful that the program will reach any great success, in view of the present price support system.

Isle Royale Park

THE National Park Service reports that visitors to Isle Royale, Michigan's national park in Lake Superior, gained in number by 11 per cent in the 1947 season. During the past season, a total of 7,745 vacationists made the trip over the island. This is not an impressive figure when compared with the 40,000 or more that annually make the river trip to Tahquamenon Falls near Newberry.

However, the 1947 attendance figure indicates an increase in public interest, and it should grow with the passing years. Main obstacle to a heavy traffic to Isle Royale is a lack of accommodations on the island itself and inadequacy in transportation from the Copper Country mainland.

The Copper Country should concern itself with the problem of Isle Royale transportation, for the wilderness area could serve as a lodestone to draw national park fans from all over the country to the Keweenaw peninsula.

$80,000,000 BRIDGE
(Sault Ste. Marie News)

The Northern Peninsula is grateful to Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler for a new baseline to remount its attack for a Straits of Mackinac bridge.

Now we know exactly where the department stands. Our attack may be launched accordingly. Nothing that Commissioner Ziegler has said can hush up spokesmen for the project. We still want to bridge or tunnel, still want to unite the state of Michigan, industrially, socially, economically and culturally.

His estimate of the bridge cost—$80,000,000—may be entirely too high. Original estimates were $40,000,000. Tom R. Hasley, civil engineer at Menominee has carefully estimated the cost of a tunnel, for car and railroad traffic, at $16,000,000.

Even the $80,000,000 figure is not "beyond the moon." Since the bridge would become part of the federal highway system, half the cost probably would be borne by the federal government.

As far financing the state's share, no doubt it could be done at less than two per cent. This year the state government sold $200,000,000 state veterans' bonds at 1.473 per cent interest. Bridge bonds might be sold at the same interest rate.

The fact that the most ever taken in at the Straits is $850,000 in one year does not mean that is the top. This year's revenues will go over that figure. Revenues will continue to climb.

To operate the ferries during the war, the highway department paid $350,000 over and above ferry revenue. If the state can thus write off a state ferry deficit from other funds, it can as easily pay for retiring bridge bonds from funds other than receipts from the ferry.

The thing to remember is that a Straits of Mackinac bridge is not only a matter of highway travel, it is a matter of making the state whole. Whatever the cost of the bridge, the Northern Peninsula needs it for the fullest development.

Many a man stopped being boss in his home when his wife and kids returned from vacation.

Take My Word For It . . . Frank Colby

WHAT'S THE ORIGIN?
(Scrapbook Item)

Savannah: "At long last" is a phrase used by well-known writers and it puzzles me. Why the "long"?—J. J. G.

Answer: I have traced the redundant phrase in literature as far back as 1398. Many authors have used it; for example Lowell in Study Window: "... the hearty abuse of human nature which at the long last is always to blame."

The expression has become a cliché (trite, worn out) since the abdication broadcast of Edward VIII (now Duke of Windsor) December 11, 1936: "At long last I am able to say a few words of my own—but until now it has not been constitutionally possible for me to speak. I have found it impossible to carry the heavy burden of responsibility and to discharge my duties as king as I would wish to do without the help and support of the woman I love."

Nashville: Why are aristocrats spoken of as "blue bloods"?—G. L.
Answer: The expression originated in Spain and referred to the light-complexioned descendants of the original blond Spanish stock. Their skin was so fair and thin that the veins showed blue. They were accordingly said to have blue blood or to be bluebloods as contrasted with the darker-skinned Spaniards of Moorish admixture.

Youngstown: We hear a lot about governmental red tape. How did the term originate?—W. F. I.

Answer: Before the days of modern office methods and banks of steel filing cabinets it was customary to store documents in bundles tied with red tape. When it became necessary to consult such documents the job was laborious and dusty; hence the modern meaning "petty and delaying routine."

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Paris, France.—Americans working back stage to try to set the scenery for the Marshall plan found themselves in an unhappy predicament. Theoretically, they were the producers of the show. Yet they could not be entirely sure that it would ever have a single performance.

The elaborate maneuvering, the backing and filling illustrate perfectly the supreme difficulty of carrying out a positive foreign policy when the powers of the American government are divided between the two parties.

If so much did not turn on the outcome, it would have an almost comic aspect. While the committees of the 16 participating nations were doing their homework, the Americans acting as liaison agents hovered nervously in the background. They occasionally peeked at the figures on imports and balance of payments and what they saw was not reassuring. They had the look of a hopeful youngster about to submit a Christmas list to an indulgent uncle.

—NOT RESPONSIBLE—

But such was the position of the United States that intervention at that stage at any rate was impossible. If we had played teacher and had said that the plan must take this form or that form, then the responsibility would be ours. And that responsibility the American stage managers simply could not assume, since the Congress was not committed in any way to putting up the money so the show could go on.

Not until the Christmas list was completed and submitted privately for American approval before publication was it possible to act. Then it became perfectly obvious that publication of the proposals drawn up by the 16 nations would end the Marshall plan once and for all.

The $29,000,000,000 total may have been an error. In the aftermath it has been put down to the mistaken assumption of a newspaper correspondent. But certainly the estimate of needs from the United States for the 1948-51 period was far beyond anything Congress would consider.

At that point a great number of urgent cables flew back and forth across the Atlantic. In the role of kindly counselor Undersecretary of State Will Clayton arrived on the scene. After certain misunderstandings had been cleared up, the 16 nations were in effect told to go back and do their homework over again, since they had come up with a disastrous answer.

The second try was better. The figure of approximately $22,500,000,000 is regarded as a practical, working figure. Yet again it was felt necessary to sharpen the pencils and do at least part of the sums all over. That is why many of the experts who worked in Paris throughout the summer have been summoned to Washington.

—CANNOT EXPECT PERFECTION—

It may seem futile at this point to recite the birth pangs of the infant plan. In my opinion, however, it is important to keep these difficulties in mind. They should be duly taken into account when the plan is incorporated in legislation and submitted to Congress.

You cannot expect perfection or anything remotely like it when the whole approach must be tentative and conditional. The end result is fairly certain to be tentative and to have the weaknesses of timidity and overcaution.

The British have been accused in some quarters of taking a lukewarm interest in the success of the Marshall plan, meanwhile keeping an eye out for other possibilities. If this is true, one can hardly blame them. They know better than most Europeans the uncertainties of our system of divided powers and especially in an election year when both sides of the divide are out to make political capital.

In the present state of the British economy it would be a perilous risk to put all the British eggs in the American basket. Congress might decide to make an omelette by the simple method of tossing the basket out the Senate window.

An important delegation of labor members of parliament is just now touring eastern Europe with a stop in Moscow and a call on Joseph Stalin on the schedule. Their announced purpose is to explore avenues of expanded British trade with that part of the world.

Besides the handicap inherent in the very nature of our approach to such a great undertaking as the Marshall plan, there is another handicap. It is the inadequacy of American personnel abroad; in terms of numbers and all too often in terms of quality.

Moving from capital to capital, Secretary Clayton worked prodigiously hard this summer. But he has been preoccupied with what is in the last analysis a noble dream—the multilateral trade organization. That dream seems to have less and less relation to present-day reality.

The American experts working in Paris on the Marshall plan lacked both authority and stature. It is high time that we looked at the deficiencies in our foreign service organization. Whether considered on an emergency or a long term basis some drastic changes are needed. You cannot expect to do a job in the mid-twentieth century—in the atomic era—with an organization geared to 50 years ago.

Governmental red tape is not an exclusive American invention. Dickens satirized red tape in Britain thus in "Little Dorrit": "Whatever was required to be done the Circumlocution Office was beforehand with all the public departments in the art of perceiving how not to do it."

"Stick Around, We May Get Another Delivery Job!"

Good Evening

By Clint Dunathan

STEWED TRIPE —The United Press reports with a straight face under a Hollywood dateline: "Shirley Temple's having macaroni and cheese for dinner tonight."

Joan Crawford's serving beans. And Ann Sheridan — thumbing frantically through a cook book — is whipping up a spaghetti concoction. Why? They are, and we quote, "Hopping on President Truman's self-denial bandwagon by crossing steaks off their shopping lists."

If President Truman wants to save his food conservation program, he had better place all of the Hollywood press agents in a concentration camp for the duration. Nothing is so smelly, not even a very ripe piece of limburger, than stories from glitterland telling how the moonpitches stars do their own cooking.

YOU CAN BELIEVE —It seems preposterous that Miss Temple, Miss Sheridan or Miss Crawford would be a party to such publicity unless they were certain that such examples of food saving would sway their movie followers to do likewise. It probably never entered their beautiful heads that it makes them sound like a trio of publicity-seeking movie stars.

And as for the actual saving in food accomplished by their occasional kitchen excursions to see whether the cook is still there, they could keep it up for a year and we'll bet you there wouldn't be enough to feed a Chinese family for a week.

No, it will take someone besides the movie stars to save food. But Mrs. Joe Blow, the mother of six kids; and Mrs. John Swump, who runs a boarding house over by the railroad yards and is feeding 17 men three times a day; won't get their pictures in the paper. Yet they will scrimp and save on food in a way that Hollywood movie stars only know by hearsay. Incidentally, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Swump have been saving food to reduce costs to meet bills long before there was a food conservation program.

EXAMPLE —Another Hollywood item in the news is that the stars are welcoming food conservation because "it will assist them in obtaining that new hourglass figure demanded by the fashion designers."

Such superficial reasons for encouraging anyone to save food to aid the starving people of the world is somehow revolting to the right-thinking person. Again it smacks of press-agentry more than sincerity.

The American woman is not eating less under a food conservation program so she can slip into a new dress with pads in the hips instead of the shoulders. She will save on food and scrimp to avoid waste because in her heart she feels that she is doing something for peace, for her country, and for the people of the world.

THE GARBAGE CAN —Food isn't saved by Hollywood movie stars eating salads or serving baked beans to their husband of the year. Food is saved by having Mrs. America keep one eye on the budget and the other on the garbage can. The budget is supposed to be reasonably adequate and the garbage can empty of wasted food. She has been serving macaroni and cheese, salads and beans not to make headlines

INTO THE PAST

Ten Years Ago

Manistique—The work of re-patching the city reservoir with fresh concrete has been started. When the repair is completed the whole interior will be waterproofed with Embecco, an iron compound which seals the entire surface.

Detroit —Rev. Fr. Charles Coughlin withdrew his radio broadcast contract tonight after his new ecclesiastical superior disapproved one of his statements.

Gladstone—Razing of a portion of the city hall, in disuse since for the last several months, was begun today.

Manistique—With the end of the tourist season Oct. 1, over 63,000 persons had visited Kitchitiki-pi Spring.

Twenty Years Ago

Jackson, —Temporary wooden buildings, machine shops and steel sheds were destroyed in a spectacular fire at the new Michigan State prison at Lansing Monday with an estimated loss of $30,000.

Escanaba —Dates for the Upper Peninsula State Fair, to be held for the first time in Escanaba, will be set as soon as the counties of the region announce their dates. It was announced today by the state fair board secretary.

Manistique—Inspections of the City of Manistique for fire hazards was begun yesterday by Francis Gorsche and Elmer Boal of the fire department.

Gladstone—Terminating a business career here that started nearly 33 years ago, Henry Rosenthal has announced his retirement from the business.

Ent to make the budget behave.

So far the stories from Hollywood have said nothing of the movie stars' budgets, nor have the stars been pictured delving into their garbage cans to see how much food is being thrown away.

CAUSE AND EFFECT —We also see by the papers that the whiskey distillers of the U. S. will "reluctantly" close down their plants for 60 days to save 16 million bushels of grain. The grain saved would go to feed the hungry in western Europe.

Here again we come to another American phenomena. The distillers have, by every means public and private, sought to increase the consumption of liquor. The movie picture industry went along on this, too, and depicted the raised glass, the "comic" drunk and the swiveling crowd were all there but totally irrelevant to the development of the story. Heroes and heroines were always being offered liquor by hospitable hosts, and Hollywood's idea of what to do with hands was to curl them around a glass.

"Men of distinction" posed with expensive bottles and dogs in oak-paneled rooms. There is a nation-wide poll under way by one beer company to select "Miss Rheingold."

And 10,000,000 bushels of wheat are needed to feed the people in western Europe this winter.

FOOD CONSERVATION —Individually and without Hollywood ballyhoo Americans can and will dedicate themselves to a program of avoiding food waste to help the starving of the world. They do not need the spur of a movie star's example, or the "reluctant" obedience of the distillers to make them cooperate.

Mrs. America won't be as dramatic about food conservation as members of the Hollywood movie set but she will be twice as effective.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington.—There was a day when a visit of a high French official caused the capital of the United States to turn hand-springs—as, for instance, the pilgrimage of the late Pierre Laval, then prime minister of France.

When Laval was entertained by Herbert Hoover back in the good old days when foreign visitors were a novelty, white ties and cutaways were trotted out, ornate state dinners were thrown, and the capital stopped most of its other work to welcome the premier of France.

Last week, however, the capital bestirred itself hardly at all when Georges Bidault, foreign minister of France, arrived for a far more important visit. For, today, France is the pivotal country in western Europe in combating Communism. As France goes, so goes the rest of Europe. And the rosy-cheeked, slightly worried, energetic little man who visited Truman in the White House can help swing the balance in French policies.

No communiques were issued after Bidault's visit, as was the case after the Laval-Hoover conferences. Nevertheless, it can be revealed that Bidault made one particularly significant suggestion to the president: namely, that France might act as mediator in the ever-widening dispute between Washington and Moscow. Bidault warned that the battle between Russia and the United States is hurting world recovery, suggested that France might be able to ease the tension.

Bidault also turned down Secretary of State Marshall's proposal that France join its German occupation zone with those of the United States and Great Britain. The United States is anxious to operate all three zones as one economic unit, letting the Russians go their own way in their own zone.

Bidault, however, declined to cooperate. He argued that if France agreed to unite its occupation zone with the British and Americans now, it would only increase the tension between the capitalistic west and the Communistic east.

What he also had in mind unquestionably was that such a merger would raise political hob for him just before the November elections. The Communists would yell their heads off and might win votes as the result of such a merger.

Note—Bidault's strongest plea to Truman was to obtain a few million pounds of flour in order to raise the French bread ration to 300 grams before election day. Assurances were given that France would get the flour.

—UNDER THE DOME—

Anxious to be nonpartisan, the citizens food committee telephoned Albany, N. Y., to tell Governor Dewey about their proposed voluntary food-rationing program. Dewey, however, was not available. Committee members asked if they could reach him the next day, but a subordinate replied that Dewey could not be reached—Period. Food committeemen got the impression the careful GOP politico was ducking. . . . Speaker Joe Martin, reached by telephone in San Francisco, approved the food program but declined an invitation to go on the radio with President Truman. He suggested Republican Senator White of Maine instead. . . . Food committee members were surprised to discover that the agriculture department, up to last week, had issued no appeals to farmers to curtail fattening of hogs and cattle. . . . The agriculture department is scaling down Europe's 16-nation estimate of what it will cost to implement the Marshall plan. The farm experts claim that some nations included grain for livestock as an emergency food need. . . . Michigan's indefatigable Senator Ferguson is still bent on bringing Howard Hughes back to Washington for round 2 of the Senate hearing. Meanwhile, Hughes is secretly investigating the investigators. He has hired a private detective agency to watch the Senate subcommittee. . . . When President Truman's commission on civil rights issues its report shortly, it will be disclosed that Franklin D. Roosevelt jr. took a strong position against racial discrimination in the armed forces.

—NO-SARONG SENATOR—

A senator has no business doing a striptease on a hotel veranda, even in tropical Guatemala, where sarongs are in vogue. And of all the men in Congress, Senator Elbert Thomas of Utah would be the last expected to execute such a fancy dance.

However, Washington society columnist Countess Austine Cassini recently reported the austere senator as having been spotted on a Guatemala veranda "stripped nekkid to the waist."

The senator is a former Mormon missionary to Japan, an ex-school teacher, and is known to his colleagues for his sobriety and a long-standing habit of going to bed at 9 o'clock. Furthermore, the senator quite recently married.

However, Countess Cassini's juicy tidbit spread through Washington like wildfire. Some people even believed the story. Shocked, the senator's office checked with the Washington columnist, who quoted as her source newsmen Fred Othman. Fred, in turn, said he remembered seeing the senator in Guatemala, but at no time had he seen the senator with his shirt off or doing a fancy dance.

Countess Cassini immediately apologized. Decorum now has been restored.

Note—Countess Cassini may not have known it, but Senator Thomas is a good friend and fellow Democrat of the young man who may become her husband, Senator Warren Magnuson of Washington.

Mothers Believe
Babies' Habits
Nearly Perfect

By SCIENCE SERVICE
Atlantic City, N. J.—"What habits does your baby have of which you do not approve?"

More than 600 mothers of babies about one year old were asked that question at the Rochester, Minn., Child Health Project. Over two-thirds of the mothers, 424 out of 623 surprised the doctors by reporting their babies had no unapproved habits. Dr. C. Anderson Aldrich, Mayo Clinic pediatrician and director of the Child Health Project, reported to the American Public Health Association.

Maybe, Dr. Aldrich said, the doctors at the project had been more vividly impressed by active complaints mothers made about misbehavior than by lack of them, and thus had an exaggerated idea of the number of such complaints.

Second possible explanation of the large number of non-complaining mothers is that the mothers, who had been bringing their babies regularly to the project since their birth, had learned a realistic and tolerant attitude toward infant behavior.

Third possible explanation is that because of the doctors' efforts at the project to adjust routine care to the steps of normal growth and development, the babies actually were better behaved than is usual.

Replies Interesting
The extremely high ideals which some mothers seem to hold for their children were seen in the replies of those who reported unapproved habits.

"Such behavior as hair-twisting, or wanting a bottle at bedtime would hardly be called 'unapproved behavior' by most people of experience with babies," Dr. Aldrich commented.

The overwhelming majority of complaints were for what the doctors called repetitive habits. Most of these, 137 out of the 216 total number of complaints, were for thumb-sucking. This behavior may be even more frequent because many mothers did not list it. They considered it normal behavior at this age, "an attitude with which we are inclined to agree," Dr. Aldrich reported.

Thumb-sucking, he and his associates think, is merely the sign of a lingering sucking instinct which has not yet disappeared and is unsatisfied at the time when the baby is weaned and given milk from a cup. This is particularly true, he said, when, as in the vast majority of cases, thumb-sucking appears only when the child is hungry or sleepy. When the habit persists for a large part of the waking day, it is probably more significant as a sign that the child is unable to proceed into more grown-up forms of activity.

Crying Complaints Few
Only 52 of the 664 babies were complained of because of refusing to eat or needing coaxing. In 39, the mothers complained of a voracious appetite as unapproved behavior. Sleeping habits caused complaints in about 118 of 661.

Noteworthy, Dr. Aldrich commented, was the fact that no mother listed unapproved behavior related to eliminative functions. This is probably due to the fact that these mothers had been taught not to expect to succeed in toilet training until the babies were in their second year.

Only 11 complaints were made of crying, which when compared with the almost universal crying of newborn babies points up the often forgotten fact that this unbecoming behavior is a disappearing function typical of the infant three months old or less and becoming rare by the end of the first year.

Children's Story
Hour Saturday

The children's story hour will be held at the Carnegie public library Saturday morning, beginning at 10 o'clock. Stories selected by Miss Jean Trantarella are: "Dumbo" by Disney, "And to Think That I Saw It on Mulberry Street," Geisel, and "Madeline," by Bemelmanc.

Keep your electrical appliances spotless and shining by wiping them off after each using. Use a damp, soapy cloth; dry and polish. Take care never to immerse your appliances in water. Dunking would probably ruin the electric unit.

Attending the bridegroom was George Fuller as groomsmen. William Brogan, brother of the bride, Bernard Francisco, nephew of the bridegroom, and Dale Sheets, all of Lansing, were the ushers.

Mrs. Brogan, mother of the bride, wore a draped street-length dress of platinum satin. With it she wore black and platinum accessories and a purple orchid at her shoulder. Mrs. Elliott, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dressmaker suit of black with gold accessories. She also had an orchid pinned to her shoulder.

Breakfast and Reception
Immediately following the ceremony a breakfast was served to 60 guests at the Hunt room. Later a reception for 250 guests was held at the home of the bride.

Of Donald Chase

Lansing—Miss Margaret Eileen Brogan and Donald Chase were married Saturday, October 4, at 11 a. m. in St. Mary's cathedral, Lansing. Miss Brogan, who was given in marriage by her brother, Donald, is the daughter of Mrs. Esther Brogan of Lansing. Mr. Chase, formerly of Escanaba and now of Lansing, is the son of Mrs. W. J. Elliott of Escanaba and of Osmond Chase of Lansing.

The Rev. Robert Palmer performed the double-ring ceremony and said the nuptial mass before 250 guests. Carleton Eldridge sang the mass and John McElheron sang "Ave Maria," the "Panis Angelicus" and "On This Day O Beautiful Mother." They were accompanied by Miss Pauline Risley at the organ. Tall arrangements of white mums were used to decorate the altar.

The bride and her attendants were all gowned in champagne-colored slipper satin. The bride wore a period gown distinguished by a large bustle which extended into a cathedral-length train. Her high neckline was outlined by a scalloped nylon yoke, and full leg-of-mutton sleeves extended over her wrists. The finger-tip length veil was of matching champagne-colored illusion net. It was held in place by scrolls of satin. She carried a cascade bouquet featuring Anthurium lilies and stephanotis encircled with garlands of the rolled champagne satin.

Identical Gowns
Miss Clara Weza, maid of honor, wore a gown similar to that of the bride, but with a ballerina-length skirt and cap sleeves. With it she wore elbow-length satin gauntlets. Her slippers and an ostrich-tipped Juliet cap were of chartreuse. Pink rapture roses and chartreuse ostrich plumes made up her bouquet. Patsy Fuller, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Her gown and accessories were identical to those of the maid of honor, and she carried a miniature powder puff bouquet of sweetheart roses and chartreuse mums.

Attending the bridegroom was George Fuller as groomsmen. William Brogan, brother of the bride, Bernard Francisco, nephew of the bridegroom, and Dale Sheets, all of Lansing, were the ushers.

Mrs. Brogan, mother of the bride, wore a draped street-length dress of platinum satin. With it she wore black and platinum accessories and a purple orchid at her shoulder. Mrs. Elliott, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dressmaker suit of black with gold accessories. She also had an orchid pinned to her shoulder.

Breakfast and Reception
Immediately following the ceremony a breakfast was served to 60 guests at the Hunt room. Later a reception for 250 guests was held at the home of the bride.

Refreshments were served from a table covered with an Italian lace cloth and centered with a tiered wedding cake. Crystal candelabra and white mums were also used. Mrs. George Fuller, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Walter Timler, of Racine, Wisconsin, aunt of the bride, assisted at the reception.

For her going away costume the bride wore a black afternoon suit with matching accessories. Lilies from her bridal bouquet formed her corsage. After a wedding trip through the mid-west the couple will be at home at 2401 E. Michigan avenue, Lansing.

Guests were present from Escanaba, Grand Rapids, Flint, Chicago and Racine, Wisconsin.

CHAS. JUSTICE WINS PRAISE

Ruark Nominates Grid Star For 1947 All-American

BY ROBERT C. RUARK

New York—I wish to nominate a Mr. Charles Justice, an athlete, for the All-American football team this year, and then later on—say, like 20 years away—for the presidency. I have formulated these views on certain sterling qualities in Mr. Justice's character.

Ruark

He has, for instance, after playing halfback for a chevron-wearing professional football team in Hawaii, reneged on his pro contract. He has busted a deal with the pros to enter college.

That takes courage, and I am the first to admit it, but guess where he is playing? He is playing in his home state of North Carolina, and I gather from friend Dave Camerer, for love. Love is a most potent force in amateur football these days. It allows you to gain an education while simultaneously supporting a wife and a dog named Choo-Choo.

This man has a courage that I would love to see employed for a more gainful use than cracking through tackle for 20 yards. In a state which has plucked so many of its stars from Pennsylvania and New Jersey, we have a man who was bred in Asheville, N. C., and is actually going to work—I mean play—for the U. of N. C. in Chapel Hill.

Just fancy! This season a southerner is going to play football in the south!

Rich Alumni Helped

Mainly, though, I admire Mr. Justice, who is a 22-year old sophomore, for his candor. Mr. Justice says, in a piece in Pic magazine, that he was prone to hate Chapel Hill when he arrived there, in his search for the muscular grail. Only lowercase assistants were delegated to look after Mr. Justice, Mrs. Justice, and Choo-Choo, the pooch, so he buzzed off.

"I never expected to see Chapel Hill again," said Mr. Justice, the amateur halfback. "Duke and South Carolina had been especially nice to us, and we'd about made up our minds to attend either school."

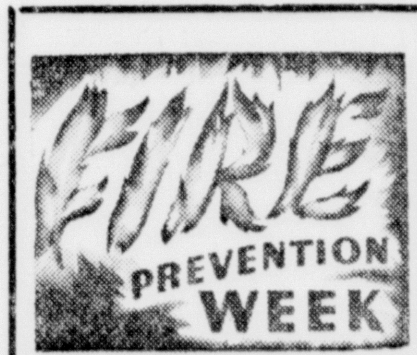

But some mysterious alchemy involving rich alumni, happened somewhere along the line, and it wasn't long before Charles and his family were freshmen. Said Coach Carl Snaveley, who once worked wonders with an ersatz North Carolinian named George Barclay, who hailed from the coal-mine sector of Pennsylvania:

"It was the most natural thing in the world for a North Carolina boy to attend the university."

Then, said the University's Press Relations Bureau, speaking for Snaveley: "I am delighted to know that Mr. and Mrs. Justice are enrolling in the university. I certainly hope Mr. Justice will come out for the football squad."

This was not a very wild wish, on Snaveley's part, since Justice had spent the war playing first string running back on a team which was built on the cream of the pros, like Bill De Correvont and Carl Mulleneaux. It is particularly interesting in view of one of Mr. Camerer's anecdotes.

Justice was sitting in on an early sociology class when the prof reared back and asked him if he knew how Hitler came into office. Charlie said nope.

The professor didn't recognize his student.

"He came to power just like we got Charlie Justice!" The professor thundered. "Power politics, pure and simple!"

The naked candor of the whole thing is enthralling. Mr. Justice was asked what he might have been if he had not been born a gifted athlete.

"I might have been a bum," said Mr. Justice, flexing his biceps.

Mr. Snaveley, the coach, was asked about the chances of his well-endowed kids deserting him for the pro ranks. Said Mr. Snaveley:

"I haven't given a thought to any of my boys turning pro. They're college kids at heart. If they can't appreciate the value of a college education and the fine contacts that go with it—that's too bad."

I am very happy that southern football has gotten back on its amateur standard peddling culture to its students.

Practiced

Dr. Charles E. Kee M. D., today opens an office for the practice of medicine and surgery at 1102 Wisconsin avenue.

His office will be in the same location as those occupied by his father, the late David N. Kee, for so many years, but they have been modernized.

Dr. Kee is a graduate of Gladstone high school, class of 1936 and received his bachelor's degree from Northern Michigan College of Education in 1941 and his MD from Northwestern University in 1945. He interned at Presbyterian hospital, Chicago. After his discharge from the U. S. Navy where he served as a Lieutenant (jg) and was stationed on the USS General Hershey, he was on the staff at Mercy Hospital at Hamilton, Ohio. He left there in August of this year to come to Gladstone to supervise preparation of his office.

Plan Round Table
For Scout Leaders

A Round Table for Boy Scout leaders of the district is to be held at the Gladstone junior high school next Friday evening, Oct. 17.

The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock in the evening. Problems which confront various units, ideas or grimes may be aired at that time, Wallace Watt, Marquette, district commissioner announces.

WED RECENTLY — Mrs. Donaid Boucher, bride in a recent ceremony at All Saints' church, is the former Joanne Marie Noskey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Noskey. The couple will live in Escanaba at 524 North 20th street. (Ridings Photo)

Warehouse

Theft of 200 feet of 1 1/4 inch rope from the warehouse of William S. Skellenger has been reported to Michigan State Police.

The hemp rope was a spare for one of the ski tows at the park and is not only a valuable but a scarce article.

It is hoped that the rope will be recovered before the first snowfall as the rope may be needed in the event of a break in either of the strands on the two tows that are operated each ski season.

Joan Elliott Bride
Of Andrew Drossart

Miss Joan Elliott, daughter of Mrs. Muriel Elliott, Gladstone, became the bride of Andrew Drossart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Drossart, Rapid River, in a ceremony performed by Judge Cone, Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock at Hot Springs, S. Dakota.

For her marriage the bride chose a black and white checked suit and wore black and white accessories.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Eli Lalonde of Gladstone and Mr. and Mrs. James McHome for the present at Igloo, Donald, of Igloo, S. Dak. The couple will make their where Mr. Drossart is employed by the Automatic Sprinkler Co.

Dies Here Thursday

Mrs. Henry Druding, 79, a pioneer resident of Gladstone, died late Thursday afternoon at the family home, 605 Superior, following a stroke on Sunday.

Born Bernia Krul on July 9, 1868, in Menasha, Wis., she came to Gladstone on June 7, 1887. On Sept. 6, 1888, she was united in marriage to Henry Druding, also a resident of Gladstone, in a ceremony performed in Green Bay.

Mrs. Druding assisted her husband in the operation of the Superior House, a hostelry which they maintained for many years. It was there in 1933 that the couple celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

She was a member of the F. R. A., Lady Maccabees, and of St. Paul Lutheran church. Surviving besides the husband are five of the nine children born to the couple. The children are Melvin Druding of Nahma, Mrs. Herbert McDonald, Mrs. Leslie Hermanson and Earl Druding of Gladstone, Roy Druding of Indianapolis. Fifteen grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren also survive.

The body was taken to the Kelley funeral home. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday in St. Paul Lutheran church. Burial will be in the family lot in Fernwood cemetery.

PROGRAM GAINSMuch Activity Planned
For Coming Fall
And Winter

With the novelty of starting school now fading into the background, many of Manistique's girls between the ages of seven and seventeen are turning to their Scouting for new interest and excitement.

The organization committee, composed of Mrs. J. C. Quick, Mrs. W. J. Sheahan and Mrs. Jack Williams, has been diligent in the search for Scout leaders and has succeeded in providing leadership for most of the troops. Troop meetings are starting this week.

East side Brownie leaders are: Mrs. C. F. Anderson, Mrs. T. H. Reque; East side intermediate leaders, Mrs. W. G. Wilson, Miss Mary Rankin, Mrs. Anthony Tafford and Mrs. Reynolds Anderson; Junior high, Mrs. Sidney Bauer, Mrs. Robert Schmeling, and Mrs. B. J. Karwaski; high school, Mrs. Marvin Fredericksen and Miss Olga Volden.

On the West side Mrs. Harry Dewey and Mrs. Leonard Stace are leading a troop of Brownies, but leaders are needed for one more Brownie and one intermediate troop.

A leaders conference will be held in Ishpeming on October 29. This is the first conference to be held in the Upper Peninsula and Mrs. Earl LeBrasseur, commissioner, expressed the hope that every leader might find it possible to attend.

An organization of the leaders association will be held on October 20 at Mrs. LeBrasseur's home. At a recent meeting of the Manistique Girl Scout council, the idea of organizing an area council was discussed. The area would include Schoolcraft, Delta, Alger and Marquette counties and the chief advantage promised by such a plan would be a better opportunity for securing professional assistance. Miss Florence Otto, regional director, who was present at the meeting explained that the shortage of professional makes it impossible for the national organization to provide the smaller councils with adequate help and training, where the area council could hire a director to be shared by the four counties.

The council came to no decision on the matter at the meeting but the plan is being considered. Miss Delores Vaughn left Thursday morning for Green Bay where she will visit several days.

Gulliver Young Couple Wed At Church Nuptials

Miss Eula Ann Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Reid of Gulliver, and Perry Rosebush, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rosebush, also of Gulliver, were united in marriage at the Latter Day Saints church in Gulliver on Monday, October 6, at 5:30 p. m. Elder Rex Stowe of Gladstone officiated at the service.

Autumn foliage and evergreens decorated the altars of the church and the traditional nuptial music was played by Harrison Beach. Attendants were Miss Crystelle Reid and Pat Rosebush. Witter Reid, the bride's brother, was usher.

The bride was attired in a dusty rose wool dress applied in aqua. Her corsage was of white roses. The bridesmaid wore a dress of pine green, and a corsage of white roses and yellow mums. Mrs. Reid, mother of the bride, wore a brown crepe dress trimmed in aqua, and Mrs. Rosebush chose a gray suit with white pin stripe and white blouse. Their corsages were of red roses.

A wedding supper for 75 guests was served in the church parlors following the ceremony. Decorations at the bridal table were in white with a beautiful tiered cake topped with the traditional miniature bride and groom. The centerpieces were of white and pink.

The bride is a graduate of Manistique high school and attended Graceland College. The bridegroom also attended the local high school, and is employed with the Inland Lime & Stone Co.

October 20

A municipal band for Manistique is now, practically, a certainty.

At a recent meeting held at the Information Center under the auspices of the Manistique-Schoolcraft Chamber of Commerce, a special committee, appointed by that organization, consisting of Tom Bolitho, Fred Helman, Lawrence Gorsche, Thomas Anderson and Clint Leonard, took steps to form an organization.

A band association executive board was formed with Fred Helman, elected president; Clint Leonard, vice president; Don McPhail, secretary-treasurer. The board decided to call a meeting for Wednesday, October 15, to be held at the court house which all people interested in becoming members of the band are invited to attend. All former members of the Manistique high school band are especially invited to attend.

PTA Groups Hear
Address On Good
Family Relations

"Let not the pennies of little things obscure the light of the big things," Mrs. Belle Farley Murray, noted lecturer and consultant in parent education, told her attentive audience in her lecture on "Building Good Family Relationships," at the auditorium Wednesday evening.

"A typical family pattern of good family relationship is not friction free," Mrs. Murray said, and if the relationship is good such friction will not undermine it. The test of a good family relationship could be judged along the lines of:

1. Is it steady, firm, solid?
2. Have the members learned to live together? Do the personalities mesh along? Is there a plus something from all the members of the family? Are they happy because of one another?
3. Does this relationship bring out the strength and good qualities of one another or does it bring forth the weakness and poor qualities?

Mrs. Murray continued to point out specific principles that could be used successfully, regardless of the age of the child, in good parent-child relationship. "In living with children," she said, "it is very important to deal with the causes of behavior, do something about them and not to the child. You should recognize that each experience of the child is a learning experience. Learn to ex-

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation and thanks to all the kind relatives, neighbors and friends of Manistique and Escanaba, who so kindly assisted us during our recent bereavement, the death of our beloved mother and grandmother, Mrs. Mary Jane Garrett. We are very grateful to Rev. F. E. H. Berendsen, B. J. P. Schevers, for their consoling words and other manifestations of sympathy, also Rev. F. M. B. Melican and P. J. McArron of Escanaba, to those who served as pallbearers, sent floral and spiritual bouquets, donated the use of their cars and to all others who aided us in so many ways. The memory of these acts of kindness will always remain with us.

ESCANABA DAILY PRESS SPORTS

"It Seems To Me"

BY JIM WARD

Ready to run another prognostication gauntlet (we have our second wind now), we take a glance at this week's slate of Upper Peninsula high school football games and find at least five encounters that are tough to call.

First, Negaunee at Houghton, in which the Miners, who handed us our only upset last week by trouncing Ishpeming, will put Houghton's offensive attack to its stiffest test of the season to date.

Crystal Falls at L'Anse is another close one, a battle of tail-enders that could go either way, both weak offensively and defensively. Calumet at Ishpeming. Both have had their ups and downs. They were downed last week by Bessener and Negaunee, respectively.

Stambaugh at Iron River, a battle of Menominee range rivals that will be rugged all the way. It is one of those traditional classics in which pregame records do not count a great deal.

And the Escanaba-Kingsford melee at Kingsford tonight shapes up as a tight one. Their records are almost identical, touchdown for touchdown.

The Flivs have a strong line but a questionmark backfield. The Eskymos are psychologically ripe for a great comeback effort. We look for an Escanaba win by a one-touchdown margin.

Here are the other Friday night forecasts: Stambaugh at Iron River—Iron River to remain unbeaten by a nose—Frank Kopenski's nose. Marquette at Soo—The Blue Devils' first game under its new lights, and the dish to be served up to home town partisans is Marquette. The Soo will win in a breeze, three touchdowns.

Ironwood at Ashland: Ironwood has improved steadily in recent weeks. Ashland has slipped. Ironwood by two touchdowns.

Calumet at Ishpeming: The Hematites should be ready to swing again after tasting the Negaunee Miners' heel last week. Ishpeming by a touchdown.

Watertown at Marinette: Marinette is still rolling in high gear. Marinette by two touchdowns.

Munising at Manistique: This might be included among the tough ones. At home under its own lights, Manistique to win its first game of the season. One touchdown.

Calling the Saturday games—After watching the Menominee Maroon steamroller flatten Escanaba last week, we pick the Maroons over Iron Mountain in Menominee tomorrow night. Menominee has class and spirit this year and will tip the Mountaineers by a touchdown.

Niagara at Stephenson: Niagara has been a doormat for more than one U. P. eleven this season, namely Kingsford and Iron River, but it won't be for Stephenson. Niagara to win by three touchdowns.

Negaunee at Houghton: Even against second-rate competition, a team that can roll up 216 points in five games has power. Negaunee shot its way against Ishpeming. With the added advantage of playing at home, Houghton will win by a two-touchdown margin.

Crystal Falls at L'Anse: L'Anse will squeeze out this one with a touchdown to spare.

Newberry at Gladstone: The Gladstone Braves have picked up steam ever since their 13-13 deadlock with Munising. Gladstone by four touchdowns.

Norway at St. Joe (Esc): As much as we'd like to see it go the other way, St. Joe will be outclassed here tomorrow by the Norway Vikings who whipped Escanaba soundly and ran up a 12-0 lead on Iron Mountain last week before bowing out. The Vikings to win by five touchdowns.

Gladstone Eleven Host To Newberry Saturday

Gladstone, Oct. 10 — The undefeated Braves of Gladstone high school return to their home field Saturday to entertain the Newberry Indians, an old rival. The opening kickoff is scheduled for 2. The Braves will go into the

Emeralds To Play Munising Tonight

Manistique, Oct. 10 — Manistique high school's second game under the lights is billed for tonight with the Emeralds pitted against Munising. On the basis of comparative scores, the teams rate about even.

The Emeralds went through the hotly contested game at Newberry last Saturday without an injury, and the spirit of the team is the highest in years. Buoyed up by backing the people of Manistique are giving the team this year the youngsters are hopeful of winning their first game of the season.

St. Joe Trojans Host To Norway Here Saturday

Escanaba Team Faces Rugged Opposition In Viking 'Aerial Circus'

The rugged Norway Vikings, who upset the Escanaba Eskymo apperact here two weeks ago to the tune of 34-14, will be seen in action at the high school athletic field again Saturday afternoon when they invade Escanaba to battle the St. Joseph's parochial school Trojans. The opening kickoff is slated for 2 p. m.

The Trojans are fully aware of the fact that the Vikings probably will present their toughest opposition of the season, and, consequently, have been drilling diligently all week in hopes of chalking up a triumph that would easily wipe out the memory of three defeats to date.

Boasting such power runners and pass snappers as Bill Marchetti and Bob Devine and a passer of known ability in Donald Hill, the fellow who threw three touchdown passes against the Eskymos, the Vikings will be out to make it two in a row in Escanaba.

The Trojans will pin their hopes of victory on pass defense and a ground game and passing attack of their own. Norway's vaunted aerial attack has come in for much attention in St. Joe's practice sessions this week.

Bob Ramspeck, Gerald Tanguay and John Rademacher, who were on the St. Joe ailing list last week when the Trojans dropped a 38-0 encounter to Marinette's Lourdes are back in shape and will see much action.

A blow to St. Joe's chances, however, was suffered in Wednesday afternoon's scrimmage when big Bill Bowden, a 215-pound tackle, injured his knee. He was taken to the hospital yesterday for treatment.

Co-Captains Named

Prior to the Lourdes game, the Trojans were bounced by Gladstone, 30-7, in the opener and St. Norbert's, 18-0, at DePere, Wis. The Saturday game will make St. Joe's first home appearance since meeting the Gladstone Braves, 19-6 Upper Peninsula champions, Sept. 13.

Co-captains for the Norway game will be Harold Marenger, fullback, and Ellsworth Viaw, halfback.

Printed programs will be distributed to all fans attending the game, and the public address system will be used to describe the play, with Pat Rooney and Tony Flynn, of the staff of WDBC, the Escanaba radio station, doing the announcing. The game will not be broadcast, however.

Officials will be John Bartel, referee; Ken Gunderman, umpire, and Brendan "Red" Williams, head linesman.

Coach Clarence Needham announced this morning that his probable starting lineup for tomorrow's clash would be: Jack Miron and Kevill Murphy, ends; Leo Schaut and John Rademacher, tackles; Forrest List and Wally Marenger, guards; Ray Menard, center; Gerald Harris, quarterback; Harold Marenger, fullback, and Buddy Laviolette and Viaw, halfbacks.

Babe Beaten By 106-Pounder In Texas Golf Meet

Fort Worth, Tex., Oct. 10 (AP)—The armor of invincibility that had been built up by Babe Didrikson Zaharias through one of the most amazing careers of sport was cracked slightly at the seams today—and a 106-pound Dallas matron, Mrs. Betty Mims White, was the reason.

The great woman athlete, American and British champion and victor in 19 straight tournaments, met defeat in the quarter-finals of the Texas Women's Open yesterday.

Mrs. White sank a six-foot putt on the 18th green to upset the Babe.

A heavy cold bothered Mrs. Zaharias.

"I'm glad it's over. I didn't want to play tomorrow," Mrs. Zaharias said huskily after congratulating Mrs. White.

New Yorkers Blase About This Football

BY HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Oct. 10 (AP)—Five of the top 15 teams in the current National football rankings will be playing in New York City tomorrow—which is a fact notable largely because the largest city doesn't have a big-time college team of its own—and what's more, the fans don't seem to care.

—Columbia still manages to do fairly well in the Ivy league. Army is just a visiting neighbor and Fordham and New York U., which went big time during the 1920's have slipped into obscurity. The other schools never were up—oh, well, the basketball season will be coming soon and the customers will begin to show excitement—the Braves are reported to have made an offer for Ralph Kiner without getting a tumble from the Pirate owners, who still shudder when they think of their last deal with Boston.

When last week's Penn State-Bucknell game was only about five minutes old, Penn State led 20-0. In the press box, a help full Bucknell spotter then asked: "Do you want me to call out the Bucknell tacklers? There won't be too many."

Genial Steve O'Neil still figures his Tigers did Okay by finishing second this year... that's about $1,000 apiece—and no World Series headaches," says Steve.

Tonight's St. Nick's fight program, topped by Bernie Reynolds vs. Jackie Cranford, is the first all-heavyweight card in New York for so long that no one can remember the last one... Georgia Tech spent $170,000 building a new football press box... Henry Lamarr, who scouted Virginia for Harvard was "kind enough" (Virginia words) to tell the Cavaliers they might do something good against Penn this season... Bob Layne of Texas never has finished a game he started pitching against Oklahoma and lost his only game to a college rival to the Sooners last spring—but that's baseball.

Five Years Ago—Alsab defeated Whirlaway in New York Handicap at Belmont Park, earning $214,650 to boost total winnings to $322,815.

Ten Years Ago—Yankees overpowered Giants 4-2, taking World Series, four games to one.

Army Favored To Stop Illinois; Wolverines, State Expected To Win

BY HAROLD CLAASSEN

New York, Oct. 10 (AP)—Army's unbeaten string will have to stop sometime but it will carry on through tomorrow when the Cadets tangle with Illinois in Yankee stadium before some 71,000 spectators—at least that is the opinion of this forecaster who last week had 49 winners and nine losers.

Both teams have potent lines with backfields that are above average. Both are regarded primarily as defensive units.

But Army has three things in its favor: First, the game will be played in Yankee stadium virtually the Cadets' home field; second, Army remembers that Illinois got the Rose Bowl bid a year ago when the Cadets believe they deserved it; third, protecting that 30-game unbeaten streak has become a West Point religion.

Other selections: Southern California-Ole Miss: Even if you toss out the Buckeyes' surprise loss to Purdue last weekend, the Trojans still would rate the call. Especially if Mr. Tannehill is in shape to play. Southern California.

Yale-Columbia: Jackson and Roderick are out of the Ell lineup and all of the Columbia casualties are healed. Columbia, in a scoring thriller.

Pittsburgh-Michigan: For the third straight, weekend, Pittsburgh will be defeated and Michigan will triumph.

Oklahoma-Texas: Bobby Layne and his Longhorn mates will be on display before the home folks at the Texas State Fair. That's incentive enough. Texas.

Harvard-Virginia: Harlow teams are their toughest in November—and this is early October. Virginia.

Princeton - Rutgers: Princeton makes its third appearance at New Brunswick tomorrow—and will be beaten a third time.

Notre Dame-Purdue: You can't expect Purdue to perform miracles every Saturday. Notre Dame.

Duke-Navy: George Clark will see to it that the Midshipmen suffer another defeat. Duke.

California - Wisconsin: Pappy Waldorf at California has a real football team. California.

Tulane-Rice: The Owls have completed their tours and now settle down to business. Rice.

Mississippi - Vanderbilt: The Commodores haven't seen the likes of the Conerly-to-Poole passing combination—and will regret making this acquaintance. Mississippi.

Indiana-Iowa: If the Hawkeyes are to save anything from a season that started on such a high note this is their chance. Iowa.

Kansas State-Boston College:

Another defeat on the Kansas State string, currently the longest reverse streak owned by a major college. Boston College.

Grid Destiny Beckoning To Alvin Wistert

Ann Arbor, Oct. 10 (AP)—Football destiny is beckoning to Alvin Wistert, hard-working tackle on the high-flying University of Michigan football squad.

On his response, will depend whether football history will be supplemented to include a unique happening—three brothers rated All-America honors.

Alvin's brothers, Albert and Francis, rated such honors as Wolverine tackles in 1942 and 1933 respectively. And it remains for Alvin to join their ranks.

Big, six-foot three and weighing 218 pounds, "Wisty" looks just the boy for the job.

In the eyes of Wolverine Line Coach Jack Blott, the giant sophomore shows "promise" and "looks better at this stage than his brother Albert did."

Five years of military service deposited Alvin on the Wolverine campus at the age of 30, admitted-

Eskymo Varsity, Bees To Battle Kingsford Under Lights Tonight

Stung twice in a row by the Norway Vikings and Menominee Maroons in home games, the Escanaba Eskymos will attempt to regain their victory stride in "foreign" territory tonight when they meet the Kingsford Flivvers on the latter's lighted field.

The game is slated to start at 9 Escanaba time, with the Kingsford and Escanaba junior varsity eleven opening the evening's grid program at 7:30, Escanaba time. It will be the second game of the season for the Eskey Jayvees, who last Saturday afternoon held Menominee "B" to a 13-13 deadlock.

Coaches Jim Rouman and Steve Baltic will take two full reserve teams to Kingsford for the night tussle.

Coaches George Ruwiche and Dick Schram of the Eskey varsity aggregation will take a squad of 24 gridders to Kingsford. Both Escanaba and Kingsford have won two and lost two this season, and each is intent in being the eleven to chalk up a victory after dropping two in a row.

They will be accompanied by Dale Jackson, student manager. The Eskymos left by bus at 6 this evening.

40,000 Will See Lions Meet Rams In Home Opener

Detroit, Oct. 10 (AP)—The crowd appeal of the Los Angeles Rams' colorful passing combination of Bob Waterfield and Jim Benton, plus another professional "homecoming" by former Wolverine Tom Harmon claim big shares in the heavy advance ticket sale for the Detroit Lions' home football opener against the Rams here Sunday, with more than 40,000 fans in prospect for the lid-lifter.

There are other aspects, of course, in the steady rush to the Lions' ticket offices.

It's the first "home" appearance for such stars of the rebuilt Lion eleven as the talented Bill Dudley, twice the National Football League's leading ground gainer while at Pittsburgh, Rookie Quarterback Clyde Leforge, the veteran LeRoy Zimmerman from the Philadelphia Eagles and Center Mervin Pregulman from Green Bay.

And the Lions are loaded with freshman talent the Detroit fans are anxious to get a look at, too.

But the box-office surge, in the words of one Lion official, hinges directly on last Sunday's 21 to 7 Detroit victory over the Boston Yanks.

Gwinn
Birthdays Party
Gwinn, Mich.—A birthday party in honor of the 11th birthday anniversary of Vincent Heric, was held at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vedo Heric, Sunday afternoon.
Baseball and other games were played during the afternoon and a lunch was served. The pink and green table decorations were centered with a large birthday cake.
At the party were Bernie DeBello, John Bianchi, Peter Heric, Nancy Story, Yvonne Heric, James Morjamaki, Marian Fralie, Evelyn Baily, Karen Heric, Peter Dannie, Darlene Saari, Francis LaFrenier, Mr. and Mrs. Helmer Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. James Boxer, of Marquette and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heric of Ensign.
Vincent received a purse of money and many other gifts.
Personals
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heric of Ensign were recent guests of their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bert Heric, of Gwinn.
Never use glass jars that leak for pressure or water-bath canning. But don't throw them away either. Save them for jams and jellies, pickles and relishes or to use as refrigerator containers.
